About Korea & Daegu

Introducing The Republic of Korea, Embracing History

Korea, The Country of Deep Tradition and Culture

The Korean Peninsula, located in East Asia, extends southwards from the Asian continent for approximately 1,100 km. It’s surrounded on three sides by water, including the East Sea, Yellow Sea, Korea Strait, Jeju Strait and Korea Bay. Over their 5,000-year history, Koreans have achieved an indigenous culture, and their unique cultural properties can be found throughout the peninsula. Koreans have put a high value on learning and have earned a reputation for diligence and dedication.

Welcome to the Colorful City, Daegu

Daegu, a perfect place to experience the essence of Korean traditional culture! The city of Daegu is the center of traditional Korean culture with over thousand years of history. Located at the center of the three Kingdoms of Korea (Goguryeo, Baekje, and Shilla), the city of Daegu and the surrounding areas possess a rich history and an abundance of cultural heritage sites. The cities are filled with cultural relics and UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Sites. With a fine transportation network linked in all directions, it is a point leading to numerous cultural heritage sites and tourist attractions which displays Korean culture.
